CHARMING MUSIC

Impossible with a poor instrument. How embarrassing for a pretty miss when invited to play to find the piano runs out of tune. It spoils the evening. Our pianos aren't that kind. The WELL KNOWN MAKES of pianos we sell are a sure guarantee of their quality. They're splendidly made, beautiful of tone and ornamental to the home.

They're awfully cheap now; cash or time.

A ROUSING MEETING.

Overflow at Opera House—Interest in World's Fair.

The meeting held at the opera house last night for the purpose of discussing how Ardmore would be represented at St. Louis on Indian Territory day, was a decided success. The opera house was full.

The meeting was opened by music from the band after which Mayor Dick made a short talk introducing Dr. J. A. Humphrey as master of ceremonies. Dr. Humphrey stated the object of the meeting and announced the program which was to be rendered.

After the rendering of an enjoyable program Sidney Suggs made a short talk on the necessity of Ardmore being represented at St. Louis on Indian Territory day and begged the people to do something and not allow the others towns around to be represented while Ardmore did nothing.

Hon. Cad Bennett was called upon and in a few well chosen words portrayed to the audience the necessity of Ardmore being represented and putting herself before the financial world.

A rousing speech followed by Mayor R. W. Dick on the same line in which he forcibly showed the people that Ardmore is as large a country village it can ever be and that we would have to reach out and bring capital here to make the town grow, and that was now the cheapest possible way to advertise the town, that is, by a suitable representation at St. Louis on the first of October.

After a talk by Dr. Humphrey thanking the people for their attendance and begging their support for the committee of which he was chairman who have this matter in hand, the meeting adjourned.

A meeting of the business men will be held on the 9th of September and it is expected all will attend who have Ardmore's welfare at heart.

OPEN REVOLT

CZAR'S UNCLE ORGANIZING AN UPRISING.

Is the Black Sheep of the Imperial Family Has Lived in Banishment for 20 Years—Many Crimes Attributed to Him.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 22.—The czar's uncle, Nicholas Constantino-vitch, a brother of Alexander III, is reported to be organizing an uprising in the Caucasus. This black sheep of the imperial family has lived in banishment at Tashkent for more than twenty years, ever since he stole his mother's jewels to throw them into the lap of a pretty Philadelphia adventuress, then in St. Petersburg. Previous to that the grand duke had been charged with complicity in the murder of Alexander III, but the case could not be proved against him.

Quite recently the czar sent Gen. Boronkoff, the veteran of the war of the Crimea, to his uncle with orders to bring him to St. Petersburg a prisoner in chains if the evidence warranted proceedings. The grand duke received the general with every evidence of good will and gave a great dinner in his honor. At the end of the festival he handed him a pear from his own plate, saying that he had grown it himself and was very proud of the product. The unhappy general accepted, and two hours later died of poison. When informed of the act, the czar ordered his uncle to be transported to St. Petersburg at once, but ere the command could be executed the murderous highness vanished. Only now he has been heard of as organizer of the revolt in the Caucasus.

Make your arrangements to enter Selvidge Business College Monday, Sept. 5th, the opening of the fall term. A special rate is being made for that time. Call at the college and investigate, if interested. 21-13.

BLOOD ON THE MOON.

Two Negroes Quarrel—One Uses a Knife, the Other a Pistol.

A shooting scrape occurred yesterday afternoon between Joe Hughes and Oelorn Eckford, two negroes, in the east part of town.

It seems the two negroes met yesterday morning and Hughes accused Eckford of telling something to a negro woman that Eckford denied. They quarreled a few minutes, but parted. They met again at the union depot yesterday afternoon and Hughes insisted upon Eckford going to the woman's house and proving that he did not say what Hughes accused him of. When they reached the house the woman was at church and Hughes wanted to go there and see her, but Eckford objected and started in the house, when Hughes began cursing him and drew his knife. Eckford went through the house and out at the back door. Hughes went around the house and they again met, Hughes starting at Eckford with his knife. Eckford ran in the house and got a pistol and shot at Hughes who ran in upon him just in time to miss the shot and cut at him with his knife. The men grappled and Eckford caught the hand Hughes had the knife in and hit him on the head with his pistol, knocking him down and taking the knife away from him. Neither of the combatants were injured seriously.

The examining trial will be held in a few days.
